West Virginia University Mountaineer Football Team to be Recognized at January 31, 2012 City Council Committee of the Whole Meeting

Players native to Morgantown will accept the honor Tuesday evening.

MORGANTOWN – In recognition of the staggering 70-33 win against Clemson in the 2012 Discover Orange Bowl, members of the West Virginia University Football Team will be attending the January City Council Committee of the Whole Meeting on January 31, 2012.

This is the team's third Bowl Championship Series win in the last seven years.

Assistant Athletic Director of Communications Michael Fragale reports that two Morgantown natives from the football team are eager to attend:

- Ryan Nehlen, a junior receiver, attended University High School
- Tyler Anderson, a sophomore linebacker, attended Morgantown High School

Both confirmed their attendance with Fragale over the weekend.

If you have questions, please contact the Public Communications Office Monday through Friday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The number there is (304) 284-7426.
