City of Morgantown Planning Commission to hold Extractive Industries Planning and Zoning Workshop February 20

The meeting will cover items relating to Marcellus shale, mining, and drilling as written in city zoning code.

MORGANTOWN – The City of Morgantown Planning Commission has announced that it will hold an Extractive Industries Planning and Zoning Workshop on Monday, February 20, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. in Council Chambers.

The purpose of the workshop will be to study the issue of extractive industries under the Planning and Zoning Code.

Workshops are not considered regular or special meetings. It won't include the formal conduct of business, rendering of decisions, or taking action for items which the Commission is charged with managing. Instead, it is open to the public and is intended to serve as training or study.

If you have questions, please contact Development Services Director Chris Fletcher at his office Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. The number there is (304) 284-7413.
