The Morgantown Police Department is investigating a motor vehicle accident involving a pedestrian that occurred today, 8/27/12, in front of the Burger King on Route 7 in Sabraton. At approximately 1040 hrs, a motor vehicle accident occurred involving three vehicles which had been traveling west on Route 7 and had stopped in the roadway in front of Burger King. Immediately after this accident, a pedestrian stopped and spoke with the subjects involved in the accident. The pedestrian, an adult male, 27 YOA, then turned and attempted to run across the eastbound traffic lane at which point he was struck by a black 2007 GMC Sierra truck operated by Harold Ray Sigley. The victim was transported to Ruby Hospital by EMS for treatment of his injuries, the extent of which are currently unknown. This incident is still currently under investigation. The name of the pedestrian is being held at this time pending notification of family regarding his condition.
