Proclamation

- Whereas, Governor Tomblin has proclaimed October 15 through October 19th, 2012 as Municipal Government Week in West Virginia and encourages all citizens to become more informed about their government; and,
- Whereas, all incorporated cities, towns and villages in West Virginia provide services to their citizens; and,
- Whereas, citizens of cities, towns and villages may not be totally aware of those services and who is responsible for seeing they are efficiently provided; and,
- Whereas, municipal officials desire to inform their citizens and to make them more aware of the investment made on their behalf; and,
- Whereas, municipal officials are planning various events to better inform citizens during Municipal Government Week; and,
- Whereas, one of the highest priorities is to educate in the Mountain State as to what Municipal government is and the positive impact it has on their lives; and,
- Whereas, the West Virginia Municipal League will assist in educating citizens and installing positive perception of government, particularly at the municipal level; and,

Now Therefore, I, Jim Manilla, Mayor of the City of Morgantown, West Virginia, do hereby proclaim the week of October 15th through 19th, 2012 as:

Municipal Government Week

Further, I encourage Elementary Students to write letters to the City of Morgantown, entitled "IF I WERE MAYOR, I WOULD..." to share their thoughts about Municipal Government.
