Alzheimer's Association Kicks Off Dancing Through Time Event

WHO: Alzheimer's Association, West Virginia Chapter

WHEN: Friday, January 18, 2013, at 2 p.m.

WHERE: City Hall Council Chambers, 389 Spruce Street, Morgantown, WV

WHAT: On Saturday, March 23, 2013, the Alzheimer's Association, West Virginia Chapter will host Dancing Through Time, a benefit event to help raise awareness and money for the cause. Local celebrities and professionals will be paired up to compete with dance routines from past decades.

Join us as we announce our local celebrities and pair them with professionals. Dance couples will also be randomly drawing their decade for music choices. Fundraising goals and company sponsorships will be announced.

Celebrity dancers include Stephen LaCagnin, Jackson Kelly attorney; Jim Manilla, Mayor of Morgantown; Andrew McGee, WVU Graduate Football Coach; Jason Parrish, Chief Meteorologist at WBOY; Elizabeth Sabatino, Miss Teen West Virginia; and Kari Sand-Jecklin, WVU Nursing Professor.

Professional dancers include Angela Dennis, Bill Duff, Gretchen Moore, and Rachel Romero.

The Alzheimer's Association, West Virginia Chapter is the only voluntary health organization in West Virginia solely dedicated to providing education and support service to individuals with Alzheimer's and other dementias, to their families and caregivers, as well as advocating on their behalf. The Alzheimer's Association is the largest non-profit funder of Alzheimer's research in the world. The chapter serves all 55 counties in West Virginia and six counties in eastern Ohio.
