Dear Friends:

This month marks the 47th anniversary of the signing of the Federal Fair Housing Act. This year's theme: "Fair Housing is Your Right...Use It!" speaks to the important work that fair housing initiatives across the country continue to embark upon.

In that spirit, the West Virginia Human Rights Commission, and its partners, invites you to attend, and participate in, our 2015 Fair Housing Events. This year the Commission is sponsoring two conferences:

- April 16, 2015: the Conference will be in Morgantown, WV at the Waterfront Place Hotel from 9:00 am- 5:00 pm; and
- April 27, 2015: the Conference will be in Charleston, WV at the Charleston Civic Center from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm.

Registration for both conferences will begin at 8:30 am, and the conferences will begin promptly at 9:00 am. Registration and the luncheon are free for both conferences.

The 2015 Morgantown Conference will be held in Salon D at the Waterfront Place Hotel (a copy of the directions and the floor plan are attached). At the Waterfront Place Hotel, parking is available in the hotel garage at a discounted rate ($4.00 per day). The 2015 Charleston Conference will be held in Parlor D at the Charleston Civic Center (a copy of the directions and the floor plan are attached). Parking is available at the Charleston Civic Center garage ($3.00) or at the Charleston Town Center garage ($1.75).

If you, and/or others from your agency, are able to attend, please RSVP to Tiffany Caldwell, Tiffany.N.Caldwell@wv.gov or call (304) 558-2616, Ext. 76209; or Laura Savilla, Laura.J.Savilla@wv.gov or call (304) 558-2616, Ext. 76232; no later than Monday, April 13, 2015, to inform us which conference you will be attending. Please be advised that seating is limited.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Tiffany N. Caldwell
